

January 28, 2025

Dear Subscribers,

The loss of a loved one is never easy, and navigating property matters during this time can feel overwhelming. The Sacramento County Assessor's Office is here to support you. We have developed a new webpage to provide you with guidance and important resources to help you through the process of managing post-death responsibilities. Here is a link to the new webpage:

Navigating Loss: Death of a Property Owner

If you need personal assistance with the loss of a loved one, please contact our Loss Guidance Team with questions at (916) 875-0750 or assessor@saccounty.gov.